

In-Flight Catering

MKC launched its In-Flight Private Jet Catering Services in 2003, operating from Northern airports with the facility to cater nationally in 2005.

A new contemporary approach to in-flight catering that has impressed World Leaders and celebrities alike, dealing directly with the client or airline we offer a bespoke service concentrating on the client's needs while working within the unique constraints of aircraft capability and range.